Dear Mr. Woodin:

Mr. Belden handed to me the other day the Calgary Indian Chief's medal which you so kindly presented to the Society, and for which I beg that you will accept our very sincere thanks.

With deep appreciation,

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Sir:

Through inadvertence, the circular concerning the "Indian Peace Medal" book by Mr. Belden was sent you without proper explanation. As you were the one who made the publication of this book possible, we have you down for a free copy. We could not think of asking you to subscribe to what might be called your own book. Consequently, I am returning your check.

We are hoping to get the book out in July and you will receive one of the first numbered copies.

Very truly yours,

Curator
